

ADVANTAGE FEEDERS AND LIENERT AUSTRALIA PRESENT:

MAKING PROFIT FROM SHEEP AND BEEF

JAN 31 – FEB 3

ALL ATTENDEES
GO INTO THE
DRAW TO WIN
AN 800HD FEEDER +
$1000 OF LIENERT
PRODUCTS

Practical information and systems to increase profit/Ha

HAMISH DICKSON, Principal of AgriPartner Consulting

- Balancing stubble and pasture quality with livestock requirements
- Containment lot and feedlot design and operation
- Ewe management in late pregnancy

GERARD RONEY, Managing Director of Advantage Feeders

- Rumen productivity and getting more out of dry pastures and stubbles
- How controlled supplement feeding can reduce feed costs
- Increasing growth rates of young stock by creep feeding

DEB SCAMMELL, National Ruminant Manager of Lienert Australia

- Improving summer feed utilisation through supplementation
- Improving performance when containment feeding sheep
- Increasing animal performance via Nutrigenomics

DATES, LOCATION & SCHEDULE

LOCATION	DATE	ALL SESSIONS
KINGSCOTE	TUESDAY, JAN 31	8:30AM-12:30PM
TALEM BEND	WEDNESDAY, FEB 1	Morning tea and BBQ lunch provided
SNOWTOWN	THURSDAY, FEB 2
CUMMINS	FRIDAY, FEB 3

COST, REGISTRATION AND FURTHER INFORMATION

RSVP	JAN 27 - Please register early and help us cater for you
$10.00	Donated to the National Centre for Farmer Health Please bring $10/person in cash to the workshops.
ONLINE	www.advantagefeeders.com.au/workshops
PHONE	Jess at Advantage Feeders 1300 88 15 75

KEY TOPICS:

CONTAINMENT LOT & FEEDLOT DESIGN AND PROVIDING SUPPLEMENT TO STOCK

FEEDING LITTLE AND OFTEN TO REDUCE SUPPLEMENT BY 40%

ENSURING STOCK GET ALL THE NUTRIENTS THEY NEED

DON'T DROP THE BALL WITH EWE PRODUCTIVITY

THE BENEFITS OF CREEP FEEDING

THE BENEFITS OF CONTAINMENT LOTTING EWES

INCREASING STOCKING RATES WITH AN EFFICIENT RUMEN